Mr. Larry Storch
Department of State
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Mr. Storch:

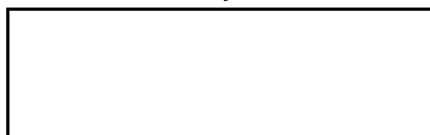

As a result of our discussions at our October conference, I would like to put forth a suggestion which I believe would be beneficial to all of us.

Since from time to time we all schedule briefings and meetings on the Hill which are of interest to other members of the Community, I would like to suggest that my Office send out a "consolidated calendar" each week to all the participants at the October conference. We could get the input for this calendar from each participant by noon each Friday and my Office would consolidate all the input and send out the final version late Friday or first thing the following Monday.

We have checked and found that all participants, with the exception of the FBI and Justice, can LDX to this Agency. That method would assure a simple and speedy system and allow for late-breaking items to be included. The FBI and Justice could either call my Office or send their input by special courier each Friday.

I would appreciate your views as soon as possible so we can set the system in motion, if all agree.

Sincerely,

Acting Legislative Counsel
